THE ROAD UP THE HILL by JOSEPH MEERT
First Prize, Oil Painting

MIDWESTERN

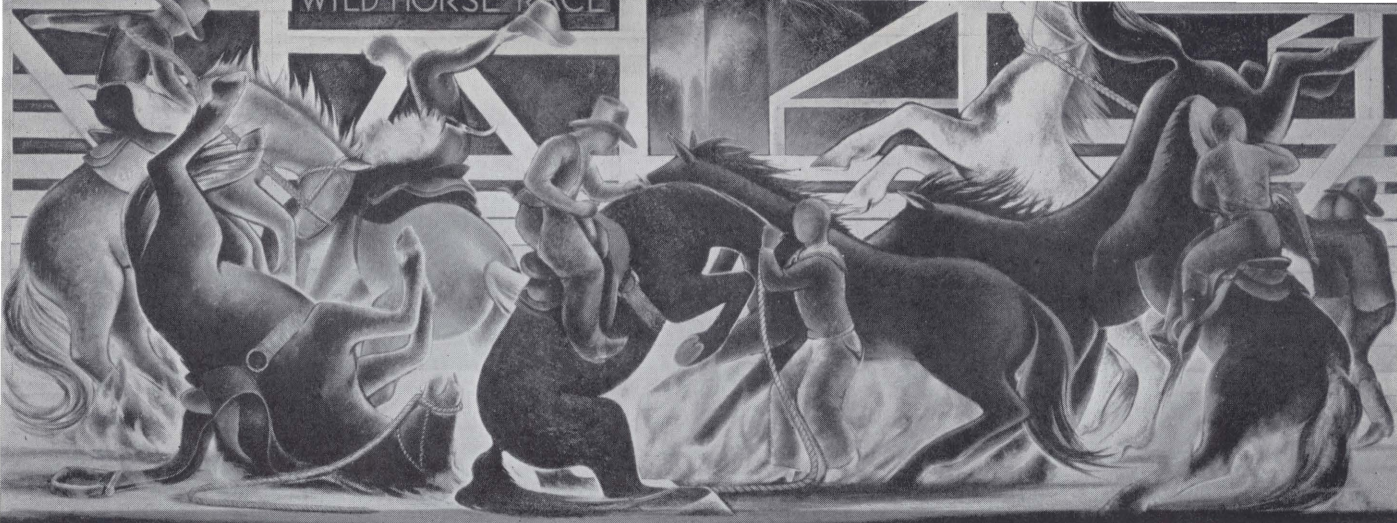

ARTISTS'

EXHIBITION

KANSAS CITY ART INSTITUTE

4415 WARWICK BOULEVARD

FEBRUARY 2 TO MARCH 2, 1936

WILD HORSE RACE by FRANK MECHAU
Second Prize, Oil Painting

FOREWORD

The scope of the Midwestern Artists' Exhibition is the same as it was last year. Notices were sent to artists from the borders of the Mississippi River to the foothills of the Rocky Mountains. A few paintings were received from Midwesterners beyond the River, and there was no discrimination against artists who are now in the East but still feel they belong to the region. John Steuart Curry is certainly still a Kansan, and we welcome the combination of Curry, Wood and Benton to celebrate Benton's return to Missouri.

The jury comprised Boardman Robinson of Colorado Springs, Colorado; Karl Mattern of Lawrence, Kansas; and Thomas Hart Benton of Kansas City, Missouri.
